

Majestic International Electronic Technologies, Inc	QEHS Management System EHS and R2 Policy	MET-002
---	---	---------

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENTAL, HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Majestic International Electronic Technologies, Inc. (MET) purchases off-lease servers, mobile devices, and other electronics for resale, repair or refurbishment. Majestic (MET) responsibly diverts electronic components and e-scrap from customer waste streams and potential landfill disposal by implementing the following strategies:

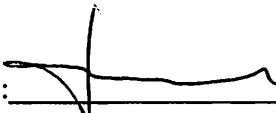

1. Repair, Reuse and Resale of servers, mobile devices, and other electronic equipment based on the hierarchy of responsible management strategies
2. Harvesting of components for reuse
3. Recycling of commodities, and
4. Managing focus materials throughout the recycling chain.

Majestic International Electronic Technologies, Inc. (MET) management is committed to preventing pollution and to the protection of workers and others affected by company operations from health or safety hazards and environmental risk.

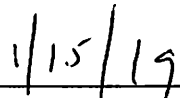

MET Management commits to promoting a culture of communication that empowers employees to report incidents and hazards and includes their involvement and consultation on QEHS matters that involve them.

Majestic International Electronic Technologies, Inc. (MET) management commits to full compliance with all regulatory QEHS, transport, or import/export requirements and data security or other applicable requirements or compliance obligations imposed by regulatory authorities, suppliers, customers, neighbors or other interested parties.

Majestic International Electronic Technologies, Inc. (MET) will establish objectives and targets with improvement goals and assign accountability to assure improved QEHS performance by maintaining an employee culture that embraces customer focus as a means to achieve continual improvement of the QEHS management system.

Signature:

 President

 Date

Revision Date & Number	Page
Rev 0: 9/1/18	Page 1 of 1